By Dr. Courtney A. Johnson

Introduction

Dr. Courtney A. Johnson has spent the last two decades of her life dedicated to helping others build their brands, systems, organizational structures, and programs. Across educational and business organizations, she aims to empower academia, value consciousness, and yield in economics. Her Special Education Professional Learning services are designed to build practical knowledge and retention for educators, providers, administrators, and families.

The withCourtney team provides research-based professional development solutions for organizations and communities that service students classified as having disabilities. Each service aligns with FAPE, IDEA, and UDL frameworks to build equitable and sustainable systems that enhance instructional quality, compliance fidelity, and educator capacity across all levels of support. Dr. Johnson both leads sessions and trains her team to deliver high-quality experiences that empower, value, and yield.
